We, Daryl Eigen, Tomas Beinavicius, Gediminas Bukauskas, Darius Ivanauskas, Liutauras Lipavicius, Sarunas Misius, Giedrius Vilpisauskas each hereby declare:

We believe that we are the original, first, and joint inventors of the subject matter which is claimed and for which a patent is sought on the invention entitled "Fault Tolerant Internet Communications System" and:

- as originally entitled "Fault Tolerant Internet Communications System", the specification of which was filed as United States Application Number 60/213,151, filed June 22, 2000;

of which we hereby claim the benefit of and priority pursuant to 35 USC §§119, 120, or 365.

We hereby declare that the above specification(s) is/are intended to include disclosure or claims directed to, individually or in combination: embodiments of the invention which may encompass a device, apparatus, method, process, or business method; embodiments of the invention which may encompass permutations or combinations of any aspects of the invention; any aspect of the invention conceived or developed as separate inventions; and any aspect of the invention independent of any initial context considered as preferred embodiments. We also authorize and support this application for patent protection in the United States, and for similar protection in foreign countries, each to be sought to the extent or breadth any owner desires or deems appropriate. We acknowledge that each of the attorneys and the firm filing this application is/are attorneys for the assignee only.

We hereby state that we have reviewed and understand the contents of the specification(s) of which has been provided to us at or prior to the time of signing this declaration, entitled "Fault Tolerant Internet Communications System", including any claims.

We acknowledge the duty to disclose information which is material to the examination of this application in accordance with Title 37, Code of Federal Regulations, Section 1.56(a).

We hereby declare that all statements made herein of our own knowledge are true and that all statements made on information and belief are believed to be true; and further that these statements were made with the knowledge that willful false statements and the like so made are punishable by fine or imprisonment, or both under Section 1001 of Title 18 of the United States Code and that such willful false statements may jeopardize the validity of the application or any patent issued thereon.
